GALVESTON STORM

Great Sea Wall Saved City From The Second Disaster.

WIND BLEW 68 MILES HOUR

No Lives Were Lost but Considerable Damage Was Done—City Was Cut Off From Mainland. Island Inundated.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Galveston, Tex., July 21.—"The city of Galveston sends greetings to her sister cities, the people of the United States and of the world, in that, at this hour, it has just passed a most formidable storm, manifesting in its course some of the most violent incidents of cyclonic disturbances and its great sea wall has completely vindicated its efficiency and protected the city against dangers from the seas, leaving such insignificant damages as are incident to all storms.

"The city, its great business interests and its people have safely passed through a most severe hurricane, the sea wall proved a complete success, the city's great wharves and shipping interests suffered no damage, and not a life was lost. (Signed) Lewis Fisher, Mayor; F. O. Flood, president Chamber of Commerce; B. Adoue, president Maritime Association."

Communication without side points was resumed at 9 o'clock tonight.

Sea Wall Great Safeguard.

Fortified behind her 17-foot sea wall and elevated to a point above the danger line, Galveston today passed safely through a hurricane that resembled the disastrous storm of 1900. Part of the island, on which the city is situated, was again inundated, the overflowing sea water reaching a height of seven feet or more. That portion of the island which has been protected, suffered comparatively little harm. No lives were lost and the property damage is not large.

Sweeping westward, the tropical storm which had been central over the Gulf of Mexico for 24 hours, struck Galveston shortly after 11 o'clock. The wind attained a velocity of 68 miles an hour and shifted to the northeast, heaving the waters of Galveston bay up against the island and flooding that quarter which had not been raised. The water backed up into the main streets of the city, but the principal damage was confined to the beach front where bath houses and pleasure piers were swept away. Shipping was undisturbed.

A hurricane from East Texas was forecasted at the district weather bureau in New Orleans early this morning and warnings were sent out. When wind and rain arrived several hours later, they found Galveston prepared. The inhabitants of the few scattered houses in the low part of the island had already sought safety, and the vessels that had cleared and prepared to sail were riding at anchor in the bay.

The fury of the storm soon abated and the anxiety of those who entertained fears of another tidal wave were soon relieved. Small boys paddling around in the flooded streets even before the heavy winds had died down preceding the scene which dispelled the alarm felt by the timid.

So short was the duration of the storm that the Mallory Line steamer which was booked to sail for New York shortly after noon, left on schedule time.

A heavy dredge was blown against the single bridge that connects Galveston island with the mainland, breaking the telegraph cables that were carried by the bridge. As a result all manner of rumors were soon rife throughout the country to the effect that Galveston had again suffer-

DAUGHTER OF CONFEDERACY

Ashes of Last Child of Confederate President Consigned to Vault. Great Crowd Sorrows Over Death of Mrs. Hayes.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 21.—All that is mortal of Mrs. Margaret Powell Jefferson Davis-Hayes, the tiny urn of ashes, rests in the little vault in Evergreen cemetery here.

The final rites over "the Daughter of the Confederacy" were as simple as she had wished. There was no show or display of any kind, the service being the usual Episcopal form with the singing of the two favorite songs of Mrs. Hayes. The beautiful residence, located on famous Cascade Avenue, and overlooking Colorado College campus, was thronged with the friends of the family. Crowds gathered in the neighboring streets. In the throng were hundreds of Southerners who seemed deeply affected as they stood with bared heads and watched the little procession bear the casket in which the urn of ashes should be placed from the house to the cemetery.

Rev. W. C. Hedrick, assistant rector of St. Stephens church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Henry Rutgers Remsen, of Grace Episcopal church. Mrs. E. E. Taliaferro, soprano, and Mrs. G. M. Perry, contralto, sang the favorites of Mrs. Hayes, "Abide With Me," and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say."

The casket was carried from the house by young men. Mrs. Hayes was especially beloved by the young people of the city. Following the casket came the honorary bearers. All the members of the immediate family were present. They were J. Addison Hayes, the husband; Mrs. Varina Hayes Webb, Jefferson Hayes Davis, Miss Lucy Hayes and William Hayes, children; Dr. Gerald B. Webb, son-in-law, and the grand-children were also present.

The casket was buried in a wealth of flowers. Among the pieces were wreaths from the officials and employes of the First National Bank, of which Mr. Hayes is president. Memorial services will be held at the two Episcopal churches on Sunday, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

It is probable the ashes will be taken to Richmond, Va., in October and that they will be accompanied by Mr. Hayes and all of the members of his family.

Announcement of the appointment of William Franklin Willoughby, of Alexandria, Va., at present Secretary of State of Porto Rico, to be assistant director of the Census Bureau, at a salary of $5,000 per annum, was made yesterday in Washington. Mr. Willoughby, who sailed from San Juan yesterday for New York, has cabled his acceptance and will assume his new duties in a few days.

VOTE TO STAY IDLE

Thousands of Steel Workers Clamor For Better Wages.

RIOTING MAY BE RENEWED

Butler Companies Are Disgusted With Strikers—Attempt Will Be Made to Operate Plants—Situation at Pittsburg.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Butler, Pa., July 21.—Despite the assurances of the officials of the Standard Steel Car Company through Father Baczewski, that as soon as conditions warranted, an increase in wages would be granted its employes, the striking men at the plants of the car company, the Butler Wheel Company and the Standard Forged Steel Wheel Company, late today voted to remain idle until their employes sign a written statement granting their immediate increase in wages an refunds on back rentals of company houses.

As the state constabulary left Butler for New Castle today the situation tonight assumes a serious aspect, as less than a score of police are available for duty, and Sheriff Caldwell has declared that unless rioting breaks out seriously he will not deputize any men.

The car company officials tonight declare themselves disguted with the action of the strikers who for the most part are foreigners, 87 per cent. of whom connot speak English.

The car and wheel company's declared they will attempt to operate their plants tomorrow and in the event of the men refusing to return to work, they will eventually bring in outside assistance.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 21.—The strike of the employes of the Pressed Steel Car Company has resolved itself into a waiting game on the part of both the strikers and the car company officials.

After two conferences today held in the chambers of Judge Marshall Brown, between counsel for the car company and counsel for the strikers it was announced that nothing approaching a settlement had been reached.

The conferences were explained as attempts on the part of the strikers to show the car company officials evidence of graft, under pay and general abuse received at the hands of minor employes of the car company at the Schoenuille plant. Attorney Beal appearing for the car company stated that the strikers' complaints in a large degree were misunderstandings with the time-keepers.

NEGRO SAVED FROM LYNCHERS.

Four Georgia Officers Drew Revolvers on Frenzied Mob.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., July 21.—The bravery of Sheriff McKinney and three lone deputies, who with drawn revolvers faced a mob of 1,000 angry men today at Vinings, Ga., saved the life of Will Webb, a negro charged with criminal assault. Webb had just been identified by Mrs. Exie Brown as the negro who assaulted her yesterday. He had not yet left Mrs. Brown's residence after the identification when the armed men and boys, many of whom for two days had been ranging through the woods in search of him, determined on a lynching, surrounded the house.

Out came the revolvers of the four officers and with a rush they charged through the mob and leaped into a big automobile which they had in waiting. Quickly they drove out of danger and rushed the negro to Atlanta where he was placed in the tower prison for safe keeping.

J Cannon, a law and order league leader, was shot and killed yesterday at Flat Creek, Ala., by George Alexander who runs a soft drink stand here. Alexander has not been arrested.

BUSY WITH TARIFF

Troublesome Dispute Settled and Much Progress Made.

RAW MATERIALS DISCUSSED

Conferees Await White House Dinner to Adjust Differences Between House and Senate—Schedules Also Taken Up.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 21.—Better progress was made today by the tariff conferees than on any day since the really troublesome disputes were reached. No trace of the ill-feeling which was manifested on Monday was apparent in the proceedings today.

When the conferees adjourned before noon yesterday, it was feared that further efforts to adjust the differences between the Senate and the House would be unavailing until after the White House dinner. This impression was gained because of the attitude of Mr. Payne, who continued his objections to the apparent willingness of some of his associates to yield to the Senate conferees without any great show of fight. After the discussion of raw materials early today, schedules were taken up, however, and many paragraphs settled without any renewal of hostilities.

President Taft is given the credit for this. Shortly after dinner last night it was learned today the President and Mrs. Payne went out for a spin in the commodious White House tonneau. As the President and Mr. Payne breathed the fresh air while whirling over the dustless macadam drives, they talked over the situation. What they said will never be known, but Mr. Payne made no objections today to the taking up of subjects not involved in the White House programme concerning raw material.

Before schedules were taken up today the conferees discussed briefly what report could be made at the conference tonight on the subjects of coal, lumber, hides, oil and iron ore, but no effort was made to fix rates upon any of these articles. It was evident that the Senate and House conferees were still far apart.

The entire zinc schedule was adjusted. Smelter was made dutiable at 1 3-8 cents per pound, a reduction from the Senate rate of 1 1-2 cents, and an increase from the House rate of one cent. All of the Senate differentials were adopted. Zinc sheets will be dutiable at 1 3-4 cents and sheets coated or plated with nickel or other metal at 2 cents. The House rate of one cent for old and worn out zinc fit only to be re-manufactured, was adopted.

The Senate conferees receded from their amendment doubling the House rate of five cents a pound on salicylic acid.

Tungsten ore, which is used in the manufacture of ferro alloysone of the chief component parts in the manufacture of tool steel and steel parts of automobiles, was made dutiable at 10 per cent. ad valorem, instead of 15 per cent, as fixed by the Senate.

The lead schedule and the products of lead, were disposed of. The Senate and House rates on lead ore were identical, the duty being one and one-half cents a pound. The House made pig lead dutiable at the same rate and the Senate provided specifically for lead dross, lead bullion and pig lead, at 2 1-8c a pound. This rate was reduced by the conferees to 2 cents. This action settled one of the most troublesome questions in the bill.

Lemons will pay a duty of 1 1-2c a pound, the Senate rate.

The window glass schedule was settled by slightly reducing the House rates, which were higher than the Senate rate on the cheap grades in all sizes. The new rates were not made known.

Senator Borah made an effort by talking with supporters of dutiable hides to effect an agreement by which hides may be put on the free list. His plan contemplates the adoption of a joint resolution giving the conferees jurisdiction to re-open the question of reducing the duty on leather goods and in consideration of placing hides on the free list, to make sole leather dutiable at 5 per cent. ad valorem, boots and shoes and calf skins 10 per cent., and to reduce the rates on harness in the same proportion.

Leaders of the anti-free raw material members of the House claimed today that 35 members had signified their intention of standing together for duties on hides, coal, iron ore and oil, and for higher rates on lumber than the House provided.

The cotton schedule likely will be taken up tomorrow.

—The alarm of fire at 1:47 A. M. today was on account of a small blaze at the store of the N. Jacobi Hardware Company on Front street. Defective wiring over a window in the office started the blaze and damage of about $100 resulted before the flames were extinguished.

WISCONSIN IS STORM SWEPT

Heavy Property Loss Estimated at $500,000—Worst in Years in Many Sections—Cloud Burst Cause of Trouble.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Milwaukee, Wiss, July 21.—A special from Ashland, Wis., says: A cloud burst last night caused heavy loss to all kinds of property in northern Wisconsin. It is estimated the total loss will be $500,000. The power plant at White River, which furnished light to the city of Ashland and the State fish hatchery near Bayfield, was practically destroyed.

The Northwestern, Wisconsin Central, Northern Pacific and Omaha trains are all penned up and no trains can get into Ashland from any direction. At High Bridge the river valley was a raging flood. Houses could be seen standing with water almost up to the room.

The dam breaking at White River imperils Odanah.

Twin Valley, Minn., July 21.—Heavy rains have overflowed Wild Rice river and March creek, entirely submerging the village of Heiberg, two miles north of here. The Northern Pacific tracks have been washed out for a quarter of a mile.

Barfield, Wis., July 21.—One of the worst storms in years occurred in this vicinity late last night. No trains are running. It is reported that 5,000,000 feet of logs were flooded out of the booms at the mouth of Bad river.

GOLDSBORO CITIZEN DEAD.

Dr. W. H. H. Cobb Passed Away Yesterday—Fayetteville Marriage.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 21.—For several days our people have with saddened hearts anticipated the death of Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, which occurred this morning at 2:40 o'clock at his residence on North William street, surrounded by his wife and children, and solaced in his passing as he had ever been through life, by their loving ministrations.

Mr. Elijah Moye, one of Goldsboro's most deserving young men and a universal favorite throughout the county, left last night for Fayetteville, where this afternoon he led to the hymeneal altar Miss Freda Cobb Latta, who has a host of friends in this city, where she until recently held the position of stenographer and typewriter in the law office of Mr. W. C. Munroe.

By the terms of the will of Mrs. Mary E. Jones, of Knoxville, filed for probate at Galvesburg, Ills., an estate of $600,000 was distributed among a large number of beneficiaries. The most important bequest to the people of Knoxville was that of $250,000 for the erection and maintenance of a home there for aged women.

James H. Ashurst, the wealthy planter who shot and killed his brother, Hill Ashurst, at Tallahassee, Fla., Monday afternoon was released from custody, the magistrate holding that the killing was justifiable.

STIR IN SUTTON INQUIRY

Witness Testifies That Young Lieutenant Told Him He Intended Shooting Himself—All Say Fatal Wound Was Self Inflicted.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Annapolis, Md., July 21.—When the naval board of inquiry which is investigating the death of Lieutenant Jas. N. Sutton, of Portland, Ore., finished its third day's session in the Naval Academy Auditorium today, only four witnesses out of the 15 so far subpoaened by the government had been examined.

H. W. VanDyke, of Washington, of counsel for Sutton's mother, said after court that outside of Mrs. Rose Sutton Parker, sister of Lieutenant Sutton, there would probably be no witnesses beyond those on the government list which includes a number of witnesses subpoenaed at the request of the Suttons. Both the direct and cross-examination of the four young officers of the marine corps who were present at the fight when, as they have all testified, Sutton shot himself, has been lengthy, and the hearing is likely to drag along for several days yet. Henry E. Davis, chief counsel for the Suttons, had not much more than started his cross-examination of Lieutenant Edward S. Willing when the hearing was adjourned for the day.

In a few minor points Mr. Davis succeeded in showing discrepancies in Lieutenant Willings' testimony at this and the former inquiry. In essentials it differed little from that of his brother officers.

Willing who was officer of the day at the marine camp and was routed out by Lieutenants Utley and Bavan when Sutton was running wild in camp with two revolvers prior to the tragedy, as former witnesses testified was the first man to say that he reached the scene of the tragedy in time to see Adams punching Sutton. Lieutenant Bevan testified that he saw no blows exchanged.

As Lieutenant Willing on cross-examination described Sutton, either

Rocky Mount	19	32	.373

Those who are wont to discant upon Wilmington's weak pitching staff are invited to consider the game of yesterday with the Agile Ashton in the rifle pit and that of the day before with the passive young Mr. Sexton on the slab and then to ponder the fact that No-hit Howard is still with us in the flesh and that "Handsome Harry" Levy, though a little disfigured from hard work, has gone nowhere.

All of which is prefatory to the casual remark that yesterday's game with Goldsboro was won by Wilmington, score four to one, Agile Ashton and Otis, the terrible, being the opposing slab artists, the former yielding but five scattered hits, doing his share of the fielding and stick work, while the Sailors garnered ten off Otis' delivery in the nine little interchange of courtesies that made up the third and last of the series of games on the ground of the "champeens."

It was a great game and one which did much to restore confidence which is quite as essential to baseball as to finance. The Sailors began smashing Otis hard from the first but it was not until the ninth that a three-base hit of Capt. Dick Smith with two out inspired such confidence in the crew that they were able to make a whirlwind finish of the game. In the first inning Nichols drew a pass and was sacrificed by Guerrant, but was out on fielder's choice of Smith's hit to third, Brodie retiring the side, pitcher to first. For Goldsboro Smith and Gettig were out, short and third to first and Steinbach on fly to Brodie.

In the second Levy flew to second, Sharp out pitcher to first and Jayes short to first. Giants, Crockett and Doak were out, Ashton to first, and Sharp Guerrant to first.

Kite started the third with a single to centre and took second on passed ball while Ashton was fanning. Nichols being out pitcher to first, and Guerrant on fly to right. Goldsboro through Robertson, Stubbe and Otis popped out to right, left and short.

In the fourth Smith led off with a single past second and was sacrificed by Brodie, going to third on another by Levy. Sharp was then hit by a pitched ball and stole second, but Jayes flew to left. Smith, Gettig and Steinbach were out, pitcher to first and third to first.

In the fifth after Kite had fanned, Ashton was hit by pitcher and walked and after Nichols had fouled out to catcher, Guerrant and Smith made successive singles to centre but Ashton was thrown out at the home plate. Crockett, first up for Goldsboro, was safe on error of second and was sacrificed by Doak, going to third on out of Sharp, third to first, but this was as near a score as possible, Robertson flying out to Brodie.

Brodie walked in the sixth, Levy singled to right and Sharp filled the bases on an error of Otis, but Jayes hit to third and Brodie was caught at home while the side was retired on Kite's fly-out to right and Levy's double at the home plate. Otis singled to right in Goldsboro's half after Stubbe was out short to first, but Smith flew to centre and Gettig fanned.

Ashton, first up in the seventh, walked; Nichols was safe on error of Otis, but Guerrant fouled out to catcher, Nichols was caught at first and Smith flew to first. For Goldsboro Steinbach hit to second and was safe on Nichols' error but was out trying to steal second while Crockett was going out pitcher to first; Doak singled to left but Sharp flew to the same garden.

In the eighth after Brodie was out to first unassisted, Levy piloted a long one to centre for two bases, but Sharp was out to first and Jayes flew to left. For Goldsboro Robertson flew to centre, Stubbe drew a pass, Otis fanned and Smith hit to second who threw to short and on muff both men were safe, but Gettig hit to short, forcing Smith at second.

The trouble started in the ninth after Kite had fouled out to catcher. Ashton singled neatly over third and after Nichols had fanned, Guerrant was safe on error of second. Then

TELEPHONE EXTENSION.

The telephone companies are more than ever making efforts to meet the demands for better service in the cities and with them it is a never ceasing extension of lines and constant outlay of capital. As a matter of fact, it can be truly said that the telephone company's work never gets to the stopping place and the necessary expenditures for new equipment and new lines never ceases. The "line's busy" all the time with them, for it is not a "finished" business and never will be as long as there is any territory to cover and more people to reach. It is easy to realize that every dollar a telephone company takes in can go out constantly for new lines or improvements, and then the demands could not be met.

While the cities have been enjoying the benefits and advantages of phone service for years, there is a movement on foot now to cover the rural districts with the service. Many local companies have organized and put in circuits and exchanges, and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company is now actively at work on plans to extend its service into the country, connecting up the rural systems with its city exchanges.

Everywhere the extension of the telephone system into rural communities is receiving more than passing attention, the general proposition having been laid down, and it is obviously based on sound reason, that there is no more reason why the dwellers in the cities and towns, where easy access and quick communication is possible, should enjoy telephone service than those living in rural communities where personal communications involve much more time and greater personal effort. The subject is one which readily appeals to the farmer wherever it is presented, as the need and value of telephone service to farmers is fully recognized, but it is said that it is not always as easy to convince the merchant that it is materially to his advantage to co-operate with the farmer in the establishment of this service.

We hardly believe that the merchant would be hard to convince that telephone service for the country would be greatly to the advantage of the cities and towns, for the advantages to both are so pronounced that it does not admit of argument. For one, The Star welcomes the movement as one of real progress towards keeping up with the times.

In New Hanover county we already have a limited telephone service in the country, but we hope to see the system established in every country home that is able to install a 'phone. Mecklenburg county, which is always taking a lead in one direction or another in the march of progress, is now engaged in a live movement to secure rural telephone service. tI has been taken up by the Farmers' Union, the Greater Charlotte Club, the Charlotte Retail Merchants' Association, and the Wholesale Merchants' Association, and with their endorsement it will result in a large increase of farmers' phones. In order to create general interest there is to be a Farmers' Day in Charlotte with a view to securing the presence of as large a number of farmers as possible, that plans may be set on foot to place a telephone in the home of every white farmer in Mecklenburg county. It is hoped to have not less than 5,000 telephones in the county and it can be readily seen what a great advantage that would be to Charlotte and the entire country.

New Hanover county is not as large a territory outside of Wilmington as Mecklenburg is outside of Charlotte, but there is opportunity to put in phones all over this county to the advantage of both city and country subscribers. Cannot out Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Wilmington Club take up this matter with Mr. Morgan B. Speir, division commercial superintendent of the Southern Bell Company?

THE SOUTH IS RIGHT.

The South has always insisted that it is in a better position to understand and solve the race question than are the phylosophers and ill-advised humanitarians who theorize at a distance. The South has insisted on its position, and its insistence and persistence practically has convinced the North of its policy. This from an editorial in Colliers' Weekly, of July 17th, indicates how thoughtful and well meaning Northerners are coming around to the South's view:

"The South is gaining powerful friends. And perhaps not so much friends, whose motive is avowed sympathy, as merely clear-eyed observers who are just and have courage. By the multiplication of these will her way be made smooth. Mr. William Archer completed last Winter a long journey of observation through the Southern States. From his conclusions, printed in the July "McClure's" we detach two sentences:

"'The South is in the main actuated by a just and far-reaching, if not far-seeing, instinct, I believe that the problem, far from being unreal, is so real and disheartenningly difficult that nothing but an almost superhuman wisdom, energy, and courage will ever effectually deal with it.'

"We wish that these convictions were in the heart of every New Englander who hastily calls a meeting to pass resolutions on the negro problem, and every Northern editor who has a formula, long conventionalized, in which he writes, periodically, a scolding for the South. In the "Outlook," the other day, Lyman Abbott spoke of his sympathy with the intense feelings of the Southern white, his 'strong confirmation' of the enlightened views of President Eliot and Ambassador Bryce about the South's ultimate problem. To these names may be added that of Thomas Wentworth Higginson, survivor of the generation of Abolition leaders and commander of a colored regiment during the Civil War. In declining an invitation to attend a conference on the status of the negro, he deplored all such agitation, which makes the problem of the South only more difficult. The day may yet come when the North will formally acknowledge that the South's stubborn refusal, since the Civil War, to yield an inch of its stand in the matter of the relations of the races was an epochal contribution to the white race in America, which, under the outrageous difficulties which the North pressed down upon the South, could not have been done differently. Probably it would be impossible to prophesy a day more unhappy for this continent than the one on which the Southern white should abate one iota of his race-pride."

We have no desire to thresh over any part of this question but to let the Northern editors and Northerners do the talking.

RIGHT TIME AND RIGHT WAY.

While the House and the Senate were considering the tariff bill, President Taft consistently remained quiet. Doubtless he considered that he had no right to interfere with legislation by the representatives of the people. However, when the two houses got the bill in a condition where it was up to the President, Mr. Taft showed his hand. He waited till the proper time and then clearly stated his position, right or wrong. He didn't butt in at the wrong time, he didn't do the dictation act, he didn't rush in with bellowing and pawing, but he kept off the grass till it was ready to be mowed.

President Taft, lawyer and judge, knows the law and the constitution. He knows what are the prerogatives and functions of the co-ordinate branches of the Government, and he waited till it came his turn.

His knowledge and discretion are in marked contrast with the action of a certain predecessor who may have tried to do the right thing but didn't know how to do it right.

It is a good thing to know when it is time to exercise a prerogative and execute a function instead of going off half-cocked.

Upon refusing to be interviewed by newspaper men, the Hon. William J. Bryan declared that he wanted no more notoriety. Colonel Bryan should have said that he had a surfeit of newspaper misrepresentation that is aimed to detract from his reputation and minimize his influence. Oh, well, the Nebraskan is tired being put in a hole by some people.

If President Taft finally compels a Republican Senate and House to carry out its pledges for revision downward, it ought to be proof to the Republican masses that they had only one man to depend upon for relief from a vicious taxing system that lays an unseen but grievous burden on people who are struggling to make a living.

Says a Republican contemporary: "We can't understand why a Democrat wants an office under a Republican administration." Why, the reason is emolumental enough to be understood by the puniest puncturer of problems.

Patten's operations on the Chicago wheat market put up the price of flour and thus increased the cost of bread. However, Patten can have all the bread he wants, for he's got the "dough."

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

S. S. S. heals Sores and Ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes right down into the blood and removes the cause, and the place is bound to heal because the impurities and morbid matters which have been the means of keeping the ulcer open are no longer absorbed from the blood. External applications of salves, lotions, plasters, etc., can never produce a cure because they do not reach the source of the trouble. At best they can only allay pain or reduce inflammation; such treatment is working on symptoms and not reaching the cause. Every nutritive corpuscle in the blood is weakened or infected, they cannot nourish the fibrous tissue around the place, but instead they constantly discharge into the flesh around the sore a quantity of impure, germ-laden matter which gradually eats into the surrounding healthy tissue and causes the ulcer to enlarge. Since impure blood is responsible for Sores and Ulcers, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a cure. S. S. S. has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity from the blood. While curing the sore or ulcer S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, healthy blood, and thus makes the cure permanent and lasting. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The proposed corporation tax will prove a gold mine for the lawyers. That may explain why it was favored by Congress, which is composed principally of lawyers.—Augusta Herald.

—Two tramps who took a bath in the Charlotte water works reservoir, have been sentenced to a term of 30 days each on the county roads. The sentence is light and it is to be hoped that the chain gang authorities will be able to hold them for the full term and that no petition for a pardon will be sent up to Governor Kitchin.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—There is great complaint at the new valuation placed by the Corporation Commission on a number of the corporations of Concord, some of them being outrageously excessive. Loud complaint will be made to the Commission, and it is expected that the valuations will be reduced, as they should be.—Concord Times.

—The Salisbury Post alludes to Charlotte and adds in parenthesis, (N. C. purposely omitted)" Sure, Mike, Why, the Charlotte man thinks North Carolina is found on the may by first finding the Queen City.—Wilmington Star. And it is just this high estimate of their town by Charlotte people that has made it what it is. No town will go forward unless its citizens believe in it and let the world know of their faith.—

—According to Press Correspondent Andrew Joyner it cost the Pomona Cotton Mills the sum of $25,000 to fail. This is entirely too expensive. Can there not be some way of going to the wall by a less costly route? It is bad enough for a business enterprise to have to haul down its flag and the hardship becomes heavier when the process is attended with excessive expense. Hardly anywhere is reform so much needed as in connection with the laws affecting failed individuals and corporations.—Greensboro Telegram.

—An auction sale of old household furniture, old guns and pistols, old nails and iron, a second-hand oil stove, some half-empty medicine bottles and other junk, was held at Easton, Md., a few days ago. Every article offered was sold at many times its value. Some of them sold for twice as much as they cost when new. Many of the bidders were women, who almost fought to become owners of such things as half-filled buckets of paint, tin pans and cheap crockery. What was the cause of this remarkable jump in values? Why, the stuff had belonged to "Lame Bob" Eastman, who murdered the beautiful Mrs. Woodill in his bungalow some weeks back and later committed suicide. The articles had thus been indirectly associated with a peculiarly shocking and bloody crime, and the people wanted them as souvenirs.—Savannah Morning News.

—They live high on the beach—high in the sense of having the good things that go to make life worth living—yet low in cost. A local in The Wilmington Star refers to what-is-what at a hotel kept by Mrs. C. H. Tatum, at Carolina Beach. It seems that at this resort there are two dinners. One called the regular dinner, includes roast chicken, roast beef with tomato sauce, rice, creamed potatoes, okra, lima beans, ham and cabbage, green corn, sliced tomatoes, sliced cucumbers, ice cream, cake and iced tea. The other, known as the fish dinner, includes clam chowder, baked sea bass with tomato sauce, friend fish, clam fritters, soft crabs, deviled crabs and shrimp, corn bread and coffee. These dinners are fit for millionaires, but the price of the first is 50 cents, and of the second 25 cents. That's tantalizing to the up-country people, who, with the quarter in their pockets, find that dinner so near and yet so far.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—"I've got seven girls to send away for the summer." "How are you going to do it, old man?" "Derned if I know, I guess I'll have to issue bonds." Pittsburg Post.

—"How do you know Bliggins enjoys trouble?" "Because he'd rather be the umpire in a baseball game than one of the players."—Washington Star.

—"Your baby cries a great deal at night. Can't you do anything for it?" "Your dog barks a great deal. Can't you do anything to stop him?" "Confound it, such unreasonable people as you haven't any right to live in a flat."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—"What did papa say, George?" "He said it was too hot to talk nonsense." "But did he know that you wanted to marry me?" "I—I think he did." "And didn't he encourage you to proceed?" "Yes, he held the door open for me."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—In one of Boston's primary schools the other day the head master of the district presented a problem for the scholars that would require the use of fractions. He expected the answer "I don't know." The problem: "If I had eight potatoes how could I divide them among nine boys?" One bright-looking youngster raised his hand. "Well?" said the master. "Mash them promptly replied the young mathematician.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE WILY COMEDIAN.

His Mixup With a Contract, a Legal Fee and an Opinion.

There was a certain comic opera comedian who made no end of money and who scorned anything like ostentatious recklessness in the spending of it. He was almost morbid on the subject, in fact, and there were those who said that he went to evening instead of morning service so that he might have the use of the money he dropped into the box a little longer. This is by way of explaining the grief which once befell him in Cleveland.

Somebody had played an engagement at a certain theater and had received a frigid reception, which stage people call a frost. The comedian wasn't going to run any risks. He wouldn't play at the theater unless a certain amount of money was promised him. The manager of the theater offered a very large percentage of the receipts; but, oh, dear, no, the wily comedian wasn't going to be caught by such chaff as that. He insisted upon a lump sum regardless of receipts. The sum was guaranteed, the contract signed. The comedian came to town and, strolling as if by chance into the box office, asked how the house was selling.

"Oh," said the ticket seller, "we sold every seat in the house ten days ago!"

The comedian's blood boiled.

"Would," said he to himself, "oh, would that I had accepted the percentage! It would have been double what I get now."

It was too late, however, to rely on simple wouilding to change matters, so he sought the foremost attorney of the town, showed him the contract and expressed his desire to break it and abide by the customary percentage plan. Before the attorney would consent to express an opinion the question of fee came up, and the comedian handed him $500. The man at law then took the paper and examined it.

"My dear sir," said he, "that contract can't possibly be broken. I drew it up myself."

It is not told what the temperature of Cleveland according to the government report was that day, but in the neighborhood of that comedian things fairly sizzled.—Washington Star.

COAL AS FUEL.

It Was In Use as Far Back as the Time of King Solomon.

The first mention of coal in the annals of mankind occurs in the Bible, Proverbs xxvi, 21, as follows: "As coals are to burning coals and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindle strife." This was written about 1016 B. C., at the time King Solomon came into power. Part of his dominion was Syria, and ancient coal mines are worked in that country today. There are several other references to coal in the Bible, all of a later date. Tools and cinders have been found near the Roman wall, indicating that the Britons were familiar with the use of coal prior to the Roman invasion in 54 B. C.

The first actual record of a coal transaction is the receipt for twelve cart loads of coal written by the good abbot of Peterborough, A. D. 852.

Years before the Christian era coal was in common use in China. Anthracite coal is powdered, mixed with wet clay and rolled into balls. These are dried in the sun, and the poor use this fuel in little hand furnaces precisely as they did centuries ago. Marco Polo speaks of seeing in 1275 "a kind of black stone in Cathay that is used to burn better than wood." Marco Polo's countrymen refused to believe the traveler's tale.

The earliest historic mention of coal in the United States is by the French Jesuit missionary father Hennepin, who in his journal in 1679 speaks of traces of coal appearing on the banks of the Illinois river and makes the site of a "cole mine" on the James river, near Richmond, the first mine opened for the market. In 1766 anthracite was discovered in the Wyoming valley and a sample of the coal sent to Thomas and William Penn in London.—Carrington Phelps in Metropolitan Magazine.

How Germany Deals With the Waster.

Germany has a law that provides that if it can be proved that a man is earning a sufficient wage to support those dependent on him, but that he is dissipating that wage by vicious habits, he can be declared a minor, and he is then treated as a child. His employer is told that the wage must be paid not to the man, but to a guardian appointed by the magistrate of the district in which he lives, who uses it for the support of the wife and children. In England a man who could not get his wage might refuse to work. In Germany the police would see that he did his work.—Progress.

Her Opportunity.

The man hater had just announced her engagement.

"But you always said that men were horrid creatures," said her friends.

"So they are," replied the bride to be, "and here's my opportunity to punish one of them."

They all agreed that it was real noble of her.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Eternal Marathon.

"Man," declared the old fashioned preacher, "is a worm."

"And," said a man who had been married three times and who was occupying a small space in a rear pew, "woman is the early bird."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Expensive Education.

"Do you think you could learn to love me?" asked old Gotrox.

"Oh, I don't know," replied Miss Youngbudd. "How much are you willing to spend on my education?"—Chicago News.

TUG TOWS CARIB IN

Clyde Liner Disabled and Delayed by a Loose Propeller.

The Clyde steamer Carib, Captain Packer, which cleared from this port last Saturday at 1 o'clock for New York was disabled and delayed by a loose propeller and had some difficulty in reaching her destination. A large party of Wilmington people took passage on the steamer, which was compelled to stop here engines at sea and take a tow to New York. A press dispatch gives the following story about the disabled steamer:

New York, July 20.—The Clyde Line steamer Carib, Captain Packer, from Georgetown, S. C., and Wilmington, N. C., was obliged when six miles from South Barnegat yesterday afternoon to stop her engines owing to her propeller working loose. The Old Dominion liner Hamilton was signalled soon after the stoppage, and was requested to send a wireless message for assistance. At 4:20 P. M. the tug Standish hove in sight and came alongside and took the Carib in tow, and brought her to a safe anchorage inside Sandy Hook at 10 o'clock last night.

Today tugs were dispatched from the city to tow the disabled steamer to a dock in Brooklyn, where she will be repaired.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE SITE

Delegation Called on Secretary of the Treasury Yesterday.

Advices from Washington yesterday were to the effect that the delegation from Wilmington composed of Mayor Walter G. MacRae and Aldermen J. H. Hinton and F. W. Bonitz yesterday called upon Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in Washington and presented to that official the proposed new site for the Custom House here, being introduced by Congressman H. L. Godwin and accompanied by Cameron F. MacRae, Esq., of the Wilmington bar. The delegation was given a very courteous hearing, Alderman Bonitz acting as spokesman, and the assistant secretary promised to give careful consideration to the proposition recommended by the Aldermanic body. The committee is investigating the disposal plant proposition at Washington and expected to go to Baltimore yesterday evening to inspect plants there.

THE ATLANTA EXCURSION.

Very Much Over-rated as to Number. All Being Cared For.

The Atlanta excursion yesterday proved to be very much over-rated as to number and the anxiety felt for the entertainment of the visitors at the seaside resorts was soon allayed. The first section of nine Pullmans and baggage coaches arrived shortly before noon and brought 271 passengers while the second section of nine day coaches brought 305, nearly a hundred of whom were negroes, the total being less than 600, whereas it had been reported from Atlanta that there were more than 800 on board. A considerable number of the visitors left on special suburban cars for Wrightsville Beach while as many more repaired to the wharf of the steamer Wilmington and left on the early afternoon trip for Carolina Beach, where ample accommodations were found. Still others remained in the city and no trouble at all was experienced in finding accommodations for them. Anticipating an overflow, Secretary J. A. McGeachy, of the Chamber of Commerce, had arranged for an information bureau and a list of boarding houses and hotels was being compiled but he had few applications, most of the visitors finding accommodations without resorting to this expedient, which, however, was well advised in view of the reports from Atlanta. Secretary McGeachy desires to thank the 30 or more proprietors of hotels and boarding houses who were kind enough to co-operate with him in gathering this information which may yet be still further available.

The visitors will remain in the city five days and appear to be dividing their time between Carolina and Wrightsville beaches and the city.

GREATER WILMINGTON CLUB.

Active Work of Organization to be Taken Up Soon—The Plans.

Those who are interested in the promotion of the Greater Wilmington Club have decided that it would be unwise for the best interests of the organization to attempt a general meeting of the members at this season of the year, owing to the number who are living at the beach and who would be unable to come to the city for that purpose. As soon, however, as the revised plans of organization are in shape it is planned to have a meeting of the Club at Lumina on some off night, special trolley cars being run for that purpose. With the adopting of more complete plans and the return of people to the city the real active work of the organization can then be taken up.

It is understood that the organization here will be after the fashion of the Chamber of Commerce now maintained at Lynchburg, Va., and which has done so much towards advertising the resources of that city, inducing the location of so many desirable enterprises there and insuring them every possible protection for a healthy growth.

SALVATION ARMY WORKERS

Ensign Williams, in Charge of Local Post, Arranges For Services.

The new Salvation Army workers at the local post, Ensign and Mrs. G. P. Williams, who recently assumed charge, coming to this city from Winston-Salem, where they succeeded Adjutant and Mrs. Yates, have taken up the work in an active manner and are being greeted with much pleasure by a large number of Wilmington people.

Ensign Williams and his assistants have conducted services at corner of Front and Princess streets for the past past few nights and have attracted good crowds, who have become interested in the work of the Army. In the future the workers will conduct an open air meeting at Brooklyn on Thursday nights and at Delgado on Friday night, which will be a new feature of Salvation Army work here. The Princess street services will be on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday nights.

A. C. L. Team Winners.

In a close game Tuesday afternoon at Hilton park the A. C. L. team defeated the Wilmington Seconds by a score of 1 to 0. A feature of the game was the pitching of Parker for the Railroaders, not having allowed a single hit and striking out 11 men, while his opponent Ray was hit freely and only for the splendid fielding of his team mates would have suffered a much worse defeat.

A VERY SERIOUS QUESTION

Delay in Arranging Budget May Render Taxes Uncollectible Unless Speedily Remedied—Waiting for Estimate

A very serious question was raised yesterday by those well informed of municipal law in connection with the further delay in finally settling upon the budget of expenses for the city government for the current fiscal year, the delay being occasioned by the failure of the committee from the Board of Aldermen to furnish the Board of Audit and Finance with a statement of the relative cost of doing the street cleaning by contract and under the regular department of Streets and Wharves, these figures of probable cost being deemed essential by the Board of Audit and Finance in determining which is the better method of adopting.

It will be recalled that some time ago the Board of Aldermen went on record as favorable to abolishing the contract system for this work and a budget of expenses was made up by the Aldermen for the Streets and Wharves Department, providing for the purchase and maintenance of teams and a return to the old system of doing this work, but the Board of Audit and Finance declined to concur unless it could be shown by a statement of the relative cost that the city could do the work cheaper than it is now being done by contract. This action was certified to the Board of Aldermen with a request that a statement be prepared showing the relative cost of the work under the two systems, but for some reason, the Aldermen through their committee have failed to furnish a statement of probable cost and the budget remains unfixed.

It is here that the very grave situation has arisen, inasmuch as the act establishing the Board of Audit and Finance for the City of Wilmington provides that:

"No ordinance of the Board levying any tax whatever shall be valid or of any effect unless an estimate and a rate of the taxes so to be levied shall first be submitted to said Board of Audit and Finance and approved by at least three of its members. The estimates aforesaid shall specify the amounts required by the next coming year to pay interest on the debts of said city and to provide a sinking fund for its ultimate payment and the amount which will be required as nearly as can be ascertained to meet the necessary expenses for the several departments of the city government and the amounts to be expended by said Board of Audit and Finance according to the specifications accompanying the same, among the several departments of the city, of which apportionment a copy shall be delivered to the Clerk and Treasurer of said city."

From a close reading of this section of the law, it would appear that the taxes for the current fiscal year, which are now being compiled, cannot be collected until this matter of appropriations is finally settled upon. The action of the two boards towards an early settlement of the budget finally is expected.

SEABOARD EXCURSIONS

Capt. J. Cullen Jones Has Brought Many of Them to This City.

Up and down the Carolina Central division of the Seaboard Air Line no conductor on the line is better known as a manager of excursions than Captain J. Cullen Jones, who, during the past several seasons, has brought thousands of visitors to the city with never an accident or serious trouble—and he has had all sorts of situations to deal with. Captain Jones is still on "the job" this season and has already brought in several trains, the order among the excursionists and their behavior both en route and in the city being a subject of remark here. He seems to have a peculiar talent for dealing with such crowds and always keeps them in good humor and subject to discipline. Out of Wilmington to Charlotte for an I. O. O. F. meeting there will be an excursion on August 12th and a general excursion from Clarkton and other points west to Portsmouth Va., and return on August 3rd. There are also a number of other excursions to be run into Wilmington this season and crowds at the resorts until the first of September promises to be the order.

CHAS. M. STIEFF.

Through an error in this office the address on the advertisement of Chas. M. Stieff has been given on Front street instead of 213 Princess street as it should have been, Mr. J. W. Wilson, the manager, "doing business still at the same old stand" which is soon to be handsomely enlarged and improved to take care of the constantly growing business of his house. A few more of the specials that are being offered by Mr. Wilson in contemplation of the extensive improvements that are to be made to his offices and salesroom in the city are on hand and the prospective purchaser of high-class instruments should call on him at once. From factory to home for 67 years is a record that no other piano house can boast of and a call and an investigation is all that is asked.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GATHERING.

Meeting at New Hope Church in Brunswick Well Attended.

The Brunswick Sunday School convention was in progress yesterday at New Hope Presbyterian church, and was attended by several ministers and others from the Presbyterian churches in this city. Representatives from the various churches throughout Brunswick joined those from Wilmington to make quite a large gathering.

The meeting was one of interest, the Presbyterian ministers from this city taking part in the exercises. Among those who went from here are Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church; Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of First church, and Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church. Talks on various topics were made by the Wilmington ministers. The delegates from this city went on the steamer Whitlock, which left yesterday morning at 6 o'clock.

The delegates and ministers returned from the convention last night at 9 o'clock and report a most successful meeting. There were about 30 people from this city and several hundred Brunswick county people in attendance. Among those who made talks during the two sessions besides the ministers were Ed. Taylor, Esq., of Southport; Rev. W. M. Sykes, of Burgaw; Mr. W. M. Cumming, of this city, and Rev. J. E. L. Winecoff, president of the James Sprunt Institute, at Kenansville.

The visitors were entertained in a most hospitable manner and enjoyed a most sumptuous dinner served in picnic style for the many delegates and visitors.

BOUFARAH PAID COSTS.

Young Man Charged With Swatting Stranger—Great Provocation.

In the Recorder's Court yesterday Shibley Boufarrah, the young Syrian, charged with striking a young white man named Guthrie in the stomach with a billiard cue a few nights ago, from which Guthrie was laid up in the hospital for several days, submitted to an affray and was taxed with the costs. It will be recalled that Boufarrah struck the man with the cue only after great provocation in the repeated application of a vile epithet to him and that after leaving the pool room where the trouble occurred Guthrie, who was a stranger in the city, fell on the sidewalk in front of the store of the Holmes Grocery Co. He was started to the hospital in the ambulance but later jumped out, was picked up by the police a second time and sent to the hospital, from which he again disappeared and has not been seen or heard of since, failing to appear for the trial yesterday. Only one other trifling case was disposed of by the Recorder yesterday.

A. H. Pait, Esq., Endorsed.

It is learned since the announcement that Messrs. Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, and Irving B. Tucker, Esq., of Columbus, would probably be in the running for the appointment of census supervisor for the Sixth Congressional District, that A. H. Pait, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, has also received very strong endorsements for the place. The race promises to be an interesting one.

Prices at the Bijou are never more than five cents and a continuous performance is given.

OFFER HANDSOME TROPHY

Generosity of Messrs. Jones and Walters in Behalf of Yachting.

Through the generosity and kindly interest of Mr. Henry Walters and Mr. Pembroke Jones, of New York and Wilmington, it has just been announced that a handsome silver loving cup to be known as the "Walters-Jones trophy" will be offered as one of the first prizes in the series of yacht races to be sailed over the Carolina Yacht Club course at Wrightsville Beach during this and succeeding seasons. The trophy is for the fleet of Class A. boats recently added to the club squadron and it was given through the instrumentality of Mr. T. M. Emerson, who in conversation with the gentlemen named called attention to the revival of interest in yachting at Wrightsville and was pleased to receive the information of the presentation of the trophy. The gift is greatly appreciated by members of the Club and it will no doubt create a still greater interest in yachting at Wrightsville.

FAISON MAN ARRESTED.

Charge Preferred Against Him by Woman Charging Seduction.

James Summerlin, a white man, who recently came to this city from Faison, Duplin county, with his wife, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox, on a charge preferred against him by a woman at his former home, who claims that he promised to marry her.

Summerlin was arrested at Delgado, where he had recently secured work, and was landed in jail awaiting word from Sheriff Best, of Duplin. The prisoner absolutely denies the charge and declares he will fight the case. However, he is placed in a rather embarrassing position, from the fact that he was married some two months ago and has a wife living in this city. The prosecutor is Miss Ida Woods, of Faison, and Summerlin will likely be carried back to stand trial within the next few days.

Durham Excursion Today.

TWO WEEKS TERM OF COURT

Convenes Next Monday With Judge Allen Presiding—52 Cases.

A two weeks term of Superior court for the trial of criminal cases, will convene next Monday with Judge Oliver H. Allen, of Kinston, presiding. At the present there are 52 cases on the docket and to dispose of these will doubtless consume the entire two weeks of the term.

Joe Stephens, white, and Ben Barge, Jr., colored, will be tried for murder, and these are probably the only two cases that will require any length of time. A number of cases on the docket are blind tiger cases, which were appealed to the higher court from the Recorder.

Brief funeral services will be conducted this morning by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, and the remains will be taken to Southport for interment.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Wilmington People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Wilmington.

Mrs. M. E. Bordeaux, 510 S. Second street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I used them with good results. I had dull pains through my back and loins and some days they were so severe that I could hardly get about to do my housework. Added to this were too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, which caused me a great deal of annoyance. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, stopped the backache and also disposed of the kidney weakness."

UNITED STATES COURT ENDS

Recess Yesterday Afternoon Until November—Argument of Several Matters on Circuit Court and Admiralty Dockets.

The special term of the United States Circuit Court, in session here the past two days, Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson, presiding, was completed yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock with the signing of a number of orders and a recess was taken sine die. The next term of the United States Circuit and District Courts at Wilmington will convene Monday, November 8th.

Court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and all the forenoon session was taken up with argument on a motion to retax the costs in the case of the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Co., against the Schooner General Adelbert Ames, on the admiralty docket, and a motion as to the dismissal of an injunction in the bankruptcy case of John L. James, of Duplin county. Argument of the motion to retax the cost in the admiralty case consumed two hours, the amount involved being $1,040. It will be recalled that the schooner Ames went aground on the inside of Cape Fear bar several years ago and was discovered by a party of pilots who came in and sent the tug Blanche to her rescue. The Blanche pulled on the schooner for some time without success and the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole finally got her off. The owners of the Blanche instituted libel proceedings for the amount of service rendered by the Blanche and later the pilots came in as intervening plaintiffs for their services in sending a tug to the rescue of the Ames. The case was referred to a special master who allowed the Blanche $2,400 and the pilots $100 but this was set aside by the late Judge Purnell and the case went to the Circuit Court of Appeals where the decision of Judge Purnell that the plaintiffs were entitled to nothing was upheld and the plaintiffs were taxed with the costs. The motion yesterday was for a division of the costs between the owners of the Blanche and the pilots, the former being represented by ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and the latter by Brooke G. Empie, Esq. Hon. John D. Bellamy was also present as counsel for the Ames in whose favor the case was decided. Judge Connor at length decided to assess the costs 24-25th against the tow boat owners and 1-25th against the pilots.

The other matter heard yesterday morning was a petition for discharge in the case of John L. James, bankrupt, H. L. Stevens, Esq., of Warsaw, and C. D. Weeks, Esq., appearing for the bankrupt and J. O. Carr, Esq., for certain creditors. The matter was referred to Geo. H. Howell, Esq., referee for hearing and report back to the court.

A recess was taken at 1:15 o'clock until 3 P. M. and at the latter hour no other matters presenting themselves for adjudication, a recess for the term was taken. Judge Connor will leave this morning for his home at Wilson. He has been cordially received by the legal fraternity and the people of Wilmington generally, who were among his most enthusiastic supporters for his recent appointment to the Federal judgeship.

DINERS FOR TARIFF

President's Advisers Try to Settle Tariff Differences at Dinner.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 21.—The White House dinner and conference, at which tariff conftrees and the President's closest advisers were brought together tonight in the effect to settle differences regarding the tariff bill, ended at 11:30 o'clock with the disputes over raw materials no nearer adjustment than they were before the dinner invitations were issued.

Only one question was determined beyond appeal and that was that the conferees will have to settle their own differences. Pains were taken, however, to convey the impression that this decision is not indicative of any absence of appreciation of the President's efforts. It merely confirmed what the "elder statesmen" had asserted from the first—that tariff making is trading.

SEARCHING FOR DEFAULTER.

Missing Court Clerk at Johnson City, Tenn., is Short $20,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Johnson City, Tenn., July 21.—The police in every city in the South, in addition to a number of detectives are searching for Foy W. Dulaney, the missing circuit court clerk of Washington county, Tenn., who suddenly disappeared from his home here nearly three weeks ago. Warrants have been issued for his arrest on a charge of embezzlement. tI is believed that he is nearly $20,000 short as clerk. He left other indebtednesses of probably $20,000.

It is a singular coincidence that Dulaney's stenographer, a pretty black haired girl, left Johnson City the day before he was missing and has not been heard from since. Dulaney has a wife and one child here.

GEORGIA SHERIFF ARRESTED

Poker Game in Which He Took Hand Ended in Bloody Fight.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Albany, Ga., July 20.—Sheriff L. H. Glenn, of Wilcox county, Marshal, G. B. McDuffy, of Leary, Ga., and four other men were arrested today as a result of a bloody fight in a local hotel.

It is charged that a poker game was in progress and that one of the players, a heavy loser, started a "rough house."

The sheriff is charged with assault to murder, gambling, carrying concealed weapons and assault and batter on four warrants. The room in which the alleged game was in progress was spattered with blood. One pistol bullet was fired.

standing or on his knee with Adams holding him by the back of the neck with one hand and punching him with the other, it was too much for Mrs. Packer who sat directly opposite the witness. She smiled incredulously at Willing and turning to Mr. VanDyke, one of her counsel, said indignantly "Imagine a wild man, as they describe my brother to have been, standing up with a revolver in each hand and taking a punching like that. It is wholly incredible."

Judge Advocate Leonard asked Willing today if he thought the punching Sutton got would have killed him or if the witness had any way of knowing whether Sutton was dead before the last shot was fired. It was known that Mrs. Sutton impressed upon Major Leonard her belief that her son was beaten to death and afterward shot.

The witness answered these question in the negative and said there was no doubt in his mind that Sutton pulled the triger of the revolver when he was shot. Willing testified that he took the 38 calibre service revolver from Sutton's right hand after the shooting, but could not remember what became of it after that. It was supposed to have got into the hands of Surgenat De Hart, who threw it away. He will be a witness. Willing who stood within two feet of Sutton's head, saw no other revolver at the time, he said.

Lieutenant Bevan created a stir today when he testified, that six weeks prior to the shooting, Sutton had told him that life in the marine corps had no attraction for him and that some day he would shoot himself. Lieutenant Willing will be called on cross-examination as the first witness tomorrow.

JUSTICE BREWER ON TARIFF.

Speaks Principally of Income Tax—Refers to Public Debt.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Milwaukee, Wis., July 21.—In his address before the Association of Agents of the Northwestern Mutual Life Company, of this city today, of which he is a trustee, Justice David J. Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, said:

"Under the hue and cry of today we must have an income tax which means a tax upon all income, and if that power to tax all income is given the government we will see the States taxed, not out of their existence, but out of their vitality. The idea leads up to the question of placing the entire power in the control of the Nation and the State is left out of the matter."

Referring to the public debt, Justice Brewer said:

"At the close of the Civil War we began paying the debt of that war and we kept on paying the debt. So far as possible, I believe that every generation should pay its own debts. We should not pile up debts for the future to take care of. The only thing we should be guarded against is the wickedness of the bankers and Wall street speculators who occasionally get up a panic. The Almighty is going to require of us to continue to strive and do our best, and we shall yet see the picture of honest men doing honest business."

ATTEMPT TO MURDER WAITRESS

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 21.—Cornelius P. Shea, ex-president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and long prominent as a labor leader, was today convicted of an attempt to murder Alice Walsh, a former Chicago waitress, with whom Shea is alleged to have lived.

Miss Walsh testified that Shea stabbed her twenty seven times with a ptn knife on May 21 in their rooms here. For a time her life was despaired of. Shea and the girl quarreled and separated, it is said, when she was told that he had a wife and children in Boston. She returned, however, four days later and the assault followed when the girl told Shea she was going to leave him for good.

Shea's only defense was that he had been drinking heavily. He will be sentenced Friday. The maximum penalty is 25 years imprisonment.

FOUR IN SAYLOR MURDER

Special Grand Jury Indicted Four For Murder of the Banker.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Watzeka, Ills., July 21.—A special grand jury called to investigate the murder on July 11th of John B. Sayler, a banker, of Crescent City, today indicted Dr. William P. Miller, Mrs. J. B. Sayler and John Grunden, Mrs. Sayler's father, for murder. Ira Grunden, a brother, was indicted as an accessory after the fact.

The indictments contained 14 counts but with the exception of the one accusing the defendants of the actual crime, the others are secondary, simply going into details of the crime and how it was committed.

Dr. Miller, Mrs. Sayler and the Grundens will be arraigned tomorrow.

WRIGHT AFTER SPEED RECORD.

Almost Reached the World's Aeroplane Record Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 21.—In two short flights in the Wright aeroplane this evening at Fort Myer, Va., Orville Wright closely approached the world's aeroplane speed record, attaining an average velocity of 54 1-2 miles an hour as computed by Wilbur Wright, who held the stop watch on the machine for half a dozen rounds of the course.

On the first flight the air craft remained aloft only one minute and 39 seconds, the avaiator being forced to descend by losing a cog wheel on the magneto after making his second round of the course.

On his second flight the aeroplane swiftly circled a dozen times around the course. Certain changes in the gearing of the motor and propellers which were intended to give the machine a higher speed had been affected earlier in the day.

NEGROES MUST BE HOME BY 10.

Curfew Law in Mobile to Suppress Hold-Ups.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Mobile, Ala., July 21.—The police commissioners today established a curfew law for negroes. Commencing tonight all the blacks must be at home or in bed at 10 P. M. Any of them caught wandering at large will be locked up. This action is due to an epidemic of hold-ups perpetrated by negroes.

LATHAM'S HOME RUN.

And How It Figured In Having Him Dubbed "the Dude."

Charley Comiskey told the story of how Arlie Latham came to be called "the dude."

"One spring during Latham's term of service with the good old St. Louis Browns," said Comiskey, "he jumped into the opening game of the season and won us a victory by knocking out a home run in the last inning. Chris von der Ahe from his place in the grand stand saw Arlie make his sensational hit and naturally enthused. After the game 'der boss president' entered the clubhouse and in that peculiar dialect of his said to Latham:

"'Arlie, my poy, you must be glad that I, Chris, vas proud mit you, an' I vill show you vat my feelings is by giving you the present of somedings for you to wear on yourself. Take dis order on mine own tailor an' go an' dress up yourself.'

"Chris' order on the tailor read something like this:

"'Give to Arlie der t'ings vat he buys, an' send to me der bill.'

"Latham didn't do a thing on the strength of that order but replenish his wardrobe. For three days in succession he showed up at the ball park in a fine makeup, and every suit of clothes was brand new. On the fourth day Chris got a bill from the clothing people for $100. Naturally he sent for Latham and demanded an explanation.

"'Why, Chris, old pal,' said 'Lath,' 'there's nothing to explain. Didn't you agree in that order you gave me to pay for what I bought, and haven't I just begun to buy? Why, old pal, I have only got three suits and expect to be measured for another this afternoon. What's wrong?'

"'Arlie,' replied Von der Ahe, 'you vas de one infernal dude in de pizness, I vill dis bill pay, but you vill yourself go to der tailor an' mit him explain vot I dink of der impudence of you yourself. You vill also stop mit de clothes you now have on an' do no more mit such foolishness mit der man vot pays your salary. Arlie, you vas one dude, an' if you play mit any errors dis afternoon I vill myself fine you all der bootiful clothes you have y urself bought.'

"From that day Latham became known to the baseball world as 'the dude.'"

Not So Slow.

"You villagers seem to be a rather deliberate lot of people."

"I s'pose we be. There wuz a feller drowned down in the creek a spell ago. He yelled 'Help, help!' afore he went down the last time, an' the editor of the village paper heard him an' went back to the office an' put in his paper two 'help wanted' ads an' charged 'em up to the estate."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SHOEMAKERS' WAX.

The Surprising Properties of This Peculiar Substance.

One of the most apt illustrations ever made by Lord Kelvin was his likening the luminiferous ether to a mass of shoemakers' wax. What Lord Kelvin said of shoemakers' wax may be tested by any boy in a manner that will astonish his playmates. First let it be said that the ether penetrates all space. It is as rigid as steel and yet so flexible that it does not retard the passage of planets through space in the least. It is an invisible substance which travels in waves through all things. Now, to illustrate the nature of such a paradoxical material Lord Kelvin searched everywhere and at last concluded that shoemakers' wax represented it best. He made tests, and this is what he found:

He melted some wax in a common glass tumbler. After it had hardened he tried to thrust a lead pencil through it. It would not go. Then he placed a coin on the surface of the wax and left it there for several days. When he again visited it the coin had sunk to the bottom of the glass. The wax had closed over it, and by lifting up the glass and looking through the bottom he could see the coin lying there. Had the wax been as deep as a well the coin would have gone on sinking until it reached the bottom. This proved that the wax would conform only to very slow movements. If he had tried to push it too fast it would have resisted him.

An idea struck the scientist. If the wax acted like this toward the coin, how would it treat an object which floated? He accordingly placed a cork in a tumbler and poured hot shoemakers' wax upon it. The wax hardened with the cork at the bottom. Yet when Lord Kelvin looked at the bottom of the glass in a day or two he found the cork had disappeared. It was somewhere in the mass of wax and probably rising very slowly, but surely, toward the top. Sure enough, after a given period of time the cork peeped above the surface of the hard wax, and finally it rose to a point where it remained half imbedded in the wax, just as it would have done in a glass of water. It rose no higher than this, however, and a corkscrew probably would not have pulled it from the wax. Yet its own buoyancy had raised it up from the bottom through what seemed an impenetrable mass of wax.

This, in fact, is the peculiarity of shoemakers' wax—that it resists all sudden or quick movements, but is highly susceptible to very slow and prolonged pressure. If you pressed a flatiron hard down on a lump of wax on a table it is probable you would make no impression on it, but if you left that iron resting on the wax for a day or two you would find the lump flattened out under the iron. So curious is this property of the wax that tuning forks have been cast from pieces of it. These forks were capable of vibration, giving a musical note and being set going by vibration from another tuning fork, yet when one of them was laid across the open mouth of a jar it slowly collapsed and fell into the jar in a shapeless, sticky mass.

Queer, but Expressive.

A Danish girl who has recently come to this country to take a course in trained nursing was complaining to a friend the other morning of having overslept herself. "And no reason why such a thing should befall me, for I had—what do you call it in English? I know, a sleep watch—all set."—Washington Star.

A Quiet Spot In the Suburbs.

"Gayboy has given up horses and drink and all his bad habits and has settled down in a quiet little place in the suburbs."

"Where?"

"The cemetery."—Illustrated Bits.

Kind Hearted.

"And did you enjoy your African trip, major? How did you like the savages?"

"Oh, they were extremely kind hearted. They wanted to keep me there for dinner."—London Opinion.

—An item copied from The Yorkville Enquirer in The Saturday Evening Chronicle, gives the information that the King's Mountain battle monument is to be dedicated on October 7th. The arrangement for the ceremonies is in the hands of the King's Mountain Chapted D. A. R. This is an event that will be looked forward to with interest. But for the battle of King's Mountain, the British might have had us. The monument marks the turning point in the fortunes of this country, and it is not to be forgotten that Congressman E. Y. Webb, of North Carolina, was mainly instrumental in securing the erection of the monument—Charlotte Chronicle.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Winston Sentinenl: So far as reported, up to this time, there have been over 250 accessions to the Winston-Salem churches as a result of the Torrey meeting held at Brown's warehouse.

—Washington Progress: Mr. Jesse R. Hardison caught a large bear in a trap Saturday night six miles from the city. It weighed 128 pounds and had it been fat it would have weighed 200 pounds. It had caught several hogs for him.

—Hickory Democrat: Very little flour is being used in the county on account of the high price. Well-to-do families, as well as poorer classes, are having fewer biscuits. We use more buckwheat and rye and corn and less wheat.

—Salisbury, July 20.—A movement is on foot here to hold an election in Salisbury and other townships in Rowan county for the purpose of voting an issue of $125,000 in bonds to be used in the construction of a railroad from Salisbury to Monroe.

—Rocky Mount, N. C., July 20.—News of a serious explosion followed by a caving in occurred yesterday afternoon in an Atlantic Coast Line quarry pit at Creston, S. C., and as the result three negro laborers were killed and several others more or less hurt. Following a terrific explosion of a blast a ledge of rock caved in, catching the laborers and killing them instantly. The giving way of so large a piece of rock was not expected and the laborers were unable to get out of its way.

—Chester, S. C., July 19.—The Springstein Mill is changing this week from steam to electricity and within two or three days, barring accidents, the entire machinery of the mill will be driven by electricity. Some of the motors were put into operation this morning and others are being started up as rapidly as possible. The Springstein will probably use, all told about 600 or 750 horse-power. The Southern Manuafcturing Company, on Gadsden street, has also recently installed electric power. The Southern Power Company furnishes the current from its plant on the Catawba River, 18 miles distant.

—Rocky Mount, July 19.—Fever in many phases seems to be raging in Edgecombe county and typhoid seems to be the more prevalent. There have already been several deaths recorded during the past two weeks while there are several cases reported today. It is not confined to any one section, but seems to be scattered throughout the county. At the home Mr. George Lewis, in the Pleasant Hill section, the entire family is ill with typhoid fever and the father of the family succumbed to the disease yesterday afternoon. At Lancaster, Miss Maud Lancaster is ill with fever, and Mr. C. D. Ruffin, a prominent planter, is quite ill at his home in the county and there are numerous cases in all parts of Edgecombe.

—Wilson, N. C., July 20.—There was a called meeting of the aldermen of the city of Wilson last night. The most important matter taken up was the licensing of dealers in near beer to $200 per year. This law goes into effect August first, when $100 will have to be paid in advance from that date until January 1, 1910,, after which $200 per year will be the rate, payable semi-annually. Heretofore dealers were required none other than soft drink license to dispense the stuff—worse than any brand of liquor or beer—over their counters. By this tax considerable revenue will be raised besides the closing up many of the joints that are now putting in more than full time.

—Charlotte Chronicle: The entertainment of the Confederate veterans of North Carolina here on August 25 and 26, promises to be one of the largest undertakings of its nature that Charlotte has ever venture upon. To begin with, there will be at least 2,000 veterans to be taken care of, fed, and furnished with sleeping quarters, declared Chief W. S. Orr, chairman of the quartermaster's department today, who is in charge of the securing of quarters for this great army of visitors. Chief Orr, however, has alerady taken a cusory view of the land and has a sort of option on some half dozen unoccupied stores which he will be tendered provided these stores are not occupied by the time of the reunion in August.

—Statesville, July 20.—The whereabouts of Fuy Kurlee, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kurlee, who disappeared rather mysteriously four weeks ago this morning, are still unknown to his parents and the latter are becoming very anxious about their child. The boy was last seen by acquaintances at a point near the plant of the Statesville Safe and Table Co., where he had been employed for some time ,and where he went from there is what is puzzling his parents and the officers. He had just been to the office of the Safe and Table Company after what money was due him and had remarked on leaving the factory that he was going back home. It was known that the boy had saved about $50 in cash and as the money cannot be found at home it is supposed that he had it on his person at the time.

A DELIGHTFUL NORTHERN TOUR.

Personally Conducted to Washington, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec. Four days in New York City, at very attractive rates, via

SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Mr. C. H. Gattis, D. P. A. and Mr. Jas. Ker, Jr., C. P. A., Seaboard Air Line, are arranging what will certainly be the most popular and delightful tour of the season, especially is this so as the party leave the Carolinas on September 1st, 1909, the most delightful time of the whole year to go on your Summer trip, and they will visit all the principal points of interest in the North—Washington, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec, Saratoga, Ausable Chasm, Four days in New York City, and Philadelphia, and all the New York theatres will be open for the Fall. An attractive feature of this tour will be the trip up the Historic Potomac, passing the Grand Old palatial home of "The Father of His Country."

The trip is to be made at the lowest possible figure consistent with the first-class hotels and other things connected with the tour, which will include railroad fare, Pullman, hotel accommodations, meals, sight-seeing trips, transfers and in fact, everything, with the exception of meals in New York, and a few other minor expenses, nearly all the sight-seeing trips are included. This last feature is a very good one as it will enable the party to spend their time seeing the sights without the bother of the details, which will be looked after by Mr. Gattis and Mr. Ker, both of whom have had wide experience in this branch of the passenger service. Time will be spent in Toronto during the Canadian Exposition, and stops will be made at all points of sufficient length to enable the party to see all the points of interest without hurrying. Mrs. Gattis and Mrs. Ker will chaperone the tour, and ladies should not hesitate to go alone. The tour will prove a most attractive one. A very attractive illustrated booklet containing detailed information can be had upon application by letter or in person to the undersigned, and those interested should write at once, as the party will positively be limited, and those applying first will get the lower berths, so it will be to your advantage to book early. Every detail has been arranged with the view to making this a most delightful and comfortable tour for all.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 21.—The cotton market was very nervous and unsettled today with prices undergoing a severe break following the official forecast indicating rains tonight or tomorrow in Texas. Bear pressure was aggressive at times, and many of yesterday's Wall street buyers sold, but strong interests seemed to be buying on a scale down and while the close was feverish at a net decline of 26 to 31 points last prices were several points up from the lowest. The market opened firm at an advance of 7 to 13 points on over-night buying orders attracted by the bullish developments of yesterday and the firmness o fthe Liverpool cables. The early map, however, showed a little precipitation and a low barometer at Galveston which, with northerly winds strongly suggested a break in the Texas drouth. Selling was heavy on this account and when the western belt forecast was received the market quickly broke to a net loss of about 14 to 18 points. Active support from leading bull interests checked the decline. December which has sold off from 12.25 on the call to 11.97 rallied to 12.05 shortly after midday but the circulation of rain predictions brought in a lot of southern selling which still further encouraged the efforts of local bears and the market soon weakened again with December selling down to 11.77, or 37 points net lower, during the late trading. The market was steadied around this level by reports that the wind had shifted, blowing the Galveston storm out to the Gulf and while fluctuations in the last hour were very irregular December closed at 11.87 a rally of ten points from the lowest. Liverpool was a large buyer hert in the late trading. Southern spot markets reported early were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

The Texas news monopolized attention and it was believed that if the rains materialized they would come in time to influence the August bureau.

Receipts today were 2,334 bales at the ports against 11,631 last week, and 3,609 last year. For the week 25,000 against 30,289 last week, and 23,660 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 558 bales against 1,194 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 35 points lower; middling uplands 12.35; middling gulf 12.60; no sales.

Futures opened firm and closed feverish.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 21.—The dry goods moderately active during the day, many buyers being in from different sections of the country. Trading in cotton goods and yarns was hampered somewhat by the fluctuations and uncertainty in the raw material markets. Some few large silk piece goods houses report a fair trade but the current business is generally light in first hands. Knit goods buyers are moving freely.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 21.—The general tone of the stock market is dominated yet by the action of one or two of the favorite speculative stocks. The favorite since the end of last week has been Union Pacific. Today United States Steel re-asserted its earlier dominant influences but this time on the side of reaction. The congestion of dealings in a few stocks is an evidence of the narrowness of the market. Union Pacific rose as high as 1.99 1-2 in the first hour establishing a new high record and giving hopes to those who have predicted for three days past that the price was to touch double par. The adverse of the selling of United States Steel proved too much for Union Pacific and it shared in the later weakness of the general market.

The serious storm reported from the Texas coast had some depressing effect on Southern Pacific and was a growing influence on the whole later market. The opinion was heard today that some of the sellings of today might be by holders desirous to escape the possible embarrassment of too numerous company on the selling side when the tariff passes.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $4,096,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 735,500 shares.

—Wadesboro Ansonian, July 20.—Dr. A. E. Cline has again appeared on the scene and will probably be of valuable assistance to the newspapers during these dull days when news is really scarce. Mr. W. L. Rose has received a letter from his daughter, Miss Emma Rose, who is a telegraph operator at Hinton, W. Va., stating that the "Doctor" walked into her office a few days ago and that she recognized him at once. She asked him if he was not Dr. Cline. He admitted that he was and begged her not to expose him or let it be known that he had trouble in Wadesboro. It now appears that he has six living wives and is wanted on many charges. He was later arrested on some felonious charge and placed in jail at Fredericksburg, Va., if the latest information received here is correct. Dr. Cline cut a wide swath here about one year ago. He came to Wadesboro as a veterinary surgeon but in a little while many charges began to loom up against his radiant horizon and he was finally arrested on a warrant from Georgia, charging him with some small offense. He was placed in jail here to await some action of the court and attempted to saw his way out. Some of his former friends would welcome his appearance here again if he comes prepared to settle some bills, long past due.

Tortured on a Horse.

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Naphes, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Boils, Fever Sores, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns. 25c. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

SENSATIONAL FINIEH

Capt. Dick clouted one to left for three sacks and Ashton and Guerrant crossed the rubber. With two still down Brodie smashed one out into left field and Smith realized on his near-home run; Levy was next safe on error of short and Sharpie sent one over Station 2 and Brodie scored. Jayes was up and Sharp was out trying to steal second. The lead was too much for Goldsboro, for after Steinbach flew to short, Davy Crockett piloted one to centre and Doak followed it up with a screamer to left for an extra cushion, but Davy could not pass over the rubber until Sharp had singled to left. Robertson was then up and flew to left while it was ditto for Stubbe.

Railroaders Wrecked.

Raleigh, N. C., July 21.—The loss of a double-header by Raleigh yesterday made big inroads on the attendance today there being only 300 out to see Raleigh defeat Rocky Mount 5 to 2. It was a rather slow game with Raleigh's hitting a special feature.

Slow Track at Wilson.

Wilson, N. C., July 21.—The slowest game of the season was played on the Wilson diamond this afternoon between the Highlanders and Tobacconists. Lane pitched an excellent game allowing only five hits, but it was impossible for him to win the game all by his lonesome. There was nothing doing until in Wilson's half of the fifth when Buckingham swatted a two-bagger, scoring Cooper. The score board at this point looked good to Wilson fans, and the rooters and rooterines from Fayetteville hung their heads. This feeling didn't last long, however, for in the sixth inning two Highlanders crossed the slab. Then in the ninth another one followed their example making the score three to one. Costly errors was what did the work for Wilson, the visitors not making one earned run. The umpire was certainly good to the visitors.

Mobilized at Goldsboro.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 21.—The union passenger station and hotel lobbies present a lively scene here tonight "chocked a block" with ball players, base ball umpires, baseball fans, baseball "knockers," baseball stories and baseball "ifs." The Wilmington, Raleigh, Rocky Mount and Goldsboro teams are all here, the Fayetteville team will arrive in a few minutes and then all will depart save the "Bugs. May they stay at home and try to "figger" out the results of the next three days and may their "figgerin" be an improvement over that of the past two days.

JOYS.

Judged by the dispatch from Goldsboro above, the knockers were working over time up in Wayne last night.

Jack Ashton with the sphere and Captain Dick Smith with the willow were the Giant Killers in yesterday's game.

Talk about hitting; why Wilmington has 'em all guessing. Refer to that batfest of yesterday and wait for the official statement of the averages.

The Goldsboro dispatch last night said that the feature for Wilmington was "Brodie's conspicuous, incessant, unwarranted, nauseous kicking." Well, I guess so! Score 4 to 1.

A dispatch from Lynchburg says that Billy Ross, the local catcher, who has been endeavoring to secure his release since the change in the management of the Lynchburg team, has been suspended and will go back to his home in Trenton, N. J.; that the management considers him far too valuable a man to let go, so he is given a technical suspension in order that he will be still an asset of the team, available for use for the season of 1910. From current report Ross will arrive in Wilmington this morning and will don a Sailor uniform for the remainder of the season.

Sees Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

ed such a storm as that which partly destroyed the city nine years ago. It was not until communication was re-established that these reports could be denied.

It is impossible tonight to make an accurate estimate of the monetary damage. Few buildings were blown down, but it is believed many warehouses were flooded and goods ruined.

The storm covered a wide area along the gulf coast. Some damage is reported as far south as Matagorda Bay and as far east as the Parish of Cameron, La.

Fears were entertained until tonight for the safety of the Right Rev. Henry D. Aves, a missionary bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who with a large fishing party was last heard from this morning at Red Fish Shoals, San Jacinto Bay. Word tonight was received that he and Rector Gray Sears, of Houston, were safe at Morgan's Point.

A fishing pier seven miles from Galveston was demolished by wind and waves. Thirty or forty persons enjoying the day on the pier were rescued by the pilot boat Texas and brought to Galveston in safety.

As a result of damage to the bridge that connects Galveston with the main land, communication by rail has been cut off. Crews will work on the bridge all night, but it is not probable that trains will be allowed to go over the structure until late tomorrow. Tug boats are carrying passengers, mail and freight across the bay to Galveston tonight.

The property loss will probably not exceed $100,000. Besides the destruction of the two bath houses on the outside of the sea wall washed away by the waves, there was some loss to small craft and fishing piers on the jetties were destroyed. The storm was a West Indian hurricane and later figures indicate that its maximum velocity was 68 miles an hour.

Houston, Texas, July 21.—Late reports confirm the rumor that 10 were killtd in the Texas storm.

Storm Moving Inland.

Washington, July 21.—Moving in a northwesterly direction, the storm which passed over Galveston about noon today with a velocity of 68 miles an hour, has passed into the interior of Texas with rapidly decreasing intensity. The weather bureau announced that the vortex of the storm apparently passed near Galveston.

Reports from the weather bureau office at Galveston confirm Associated Press dispatches previously received.
